History: NORTH BEND FUN FACTS: North Bend was made famous by David Lynch's television series Twin Peaks, and the show immortalized Twede's Cafe and its cherry pie and "'damn fine cup o' coffee," which you can still enjoy today. Mt. Si is named for Josiah Merritt (Uncle Si), who died in 1882. Washington State, the Mount Si Trail, a strenuous 8-mile roundtrip hike with an elevation gain of over 4,000 feet. Rattlesnake Lake is part of the Cedar River Watershed that furnishes water to the city of Seattle. Historically the town of Moncton was here until a neighboring dam was built and the town was slowly flooded (1915). In the fall of the year many times the lake level is low, and you can see the foundations from the old town. Be sure to visit the Cedar River Watershed Education Center that is on your route. Note the musical rain drums on your right as you walk through the center.
