

The Texas County Walkers
2022 Hunt County Walks
10 km and 5 km Walks
GREENVILLE, TEXAS

Hunt County was created in 1846 and Greenville in 1847. The area was agricultural and included raising stock and grain. Multiple rail lines came to Greenville in the 1880's boosting the importance of cotton production, finance, and commerce. In 1911 and 1912, world records were set by the Greenville Cotton Compress for the number of 500 lb. bales shipped by rail to Galveston and subsequently on to Europe. An airstrip built to support the war effort during World War 2 has been converted to an industrial park and today's largest employer in Greenville is the defense contractor L-3 Communications Integrated Systems.

Walks include Police and Courts buildings, rail depot, old homes, murals, cemetery, and various historic markers. After the walk, you can visit the Audie Murphy American Cotton Museum.
