Clearfield, Pennsylvania for a 5k and 10k Seasonal Clearfield County

This AVA rated 1B walk is composed of a 5k and a 10k both starting/finishing from the same location.

“Clearfield County, formed March 26, 1804, was named for clear fields found by early travelers. The first courthouse, in use for 46 years was built circa 1814. The cornerstone for the present courthouse was laid June 4, 1860, and finished in 1862 during the Civil War. It was constructed on the same site using materials from the first courthouse. As the oldest public building in Clearfield and the center of all county government business, it is an important historic structure. Listed April 1979 on the National Registry of Historic Places.”

*Erected in 2001 by the Downtown Business District Authority and the Clearfield County Commissioners
