Distance - Trail Ratings: 6K, Rating – 1B
Start: Lake Padden East Entrance, 4882 Samish Way

Description: This walk is a circular route on a gravel trail. You will be surrounded by trees as you walk along the lake past docks, a boat launch, over wooden bridges, past playgrounds and sports fields. There are numerous picnic tables and benches along the route for you to sit and enjoy the lake, the view of the mountains and the ducks, geese and other birds. There are many trails along the lake, but our walk only takes one of the trails. Lake Padden was named after a homesteader and coal miner in Michael Padden who purchased the land around the lake in 1872.
