Background:

The South River Greenway is an asphalt, shared-use path that runs 2 along the South River, a Virginia Scenic River. The greenway's route over flat terrain on paved path makes for easy walking and riding and the views of the river, parks, and mountains make it a favorite of residents and visitors alike. There are portable toilets, benches, exercise stations, and a bike repair station along the way as well as interpretive signage to learn about the history of the area.

Rife Park located at 801 Lyndhurst Road is open sunrise to sunset. A small, intimate pocket park perched on the bank of the South River offers opportunities to picnic, fish, and watch wildlife. The park is equipped with two picnic tables as well as a boat ramp. The boat ramp is a perfect spot for paddlers to put in or take out as portions of the Waynesboro Water Trail are explored.
