Columbia River Volkssport Club presents: The Jackson Bottom Walk

Saturday, June 20th, 2020
Start: 9am-12 noon Finish: 3pm
10km, Rated 1B

AVA
Fun, Fitness, Friendship

This walk, which is entirely on the Preserve, will take you through the 710 acre Jackson Bottom Wetlands Preserve. The Preserve is a nationally recognized education center and urban green space dedicated to connecting water, wildlife and people. Located in the heart of Washington County the Preserve is home to 200 species of birds, mammals and amphibians and provides award winning education, passive recreation, and research opportunities to more than 25,000 people a year.

You will see nesting great blue herons, possibly bald eagles and many other species. There is a 1500 pound Eagle nest on display in the visitors center.
