Trail: The Olde Towne trail is on paved surfaces mostly on city sidewalks. The walk is through several historic neighborhoods with houses from the 1900 era; there is one street (Walker) on which 5 Gaithersburg mayors once lived that was also the first street to receive street lights. The Washington Grove trail is through a tiny town within a forest and an oasis of tranquility. It began in 1873 as a permanent place for Methodist camp meetings (religious retreats.) There are narrow Carpenter Gothic cottages with steeply pitched roofs, lacy gingerbread trim and gravel walkways with few streets for car traffic. It is a view of living in the past. Both trails are suitable for strollers but not wheelchairs.

Eligibility: Everyone is welcome to walk with us but all must register and sign a waiver of liability. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Parents of minor children must sign a waiver of liability for the children.
