Important event information

Visit the Ice Cream Capital of the World. See Plymouth Rock. Visit the historic downtown and its art alleys. See some of the 55 ice cream sculptures that dot the landscape. Stroll through Veterans Park with its unique sculptures. Visit the Plymouth Historical Museum with five stories of exhibits. And did I mention ice cream? The walk is on city sidewalks. Strollers and wheelchairs may have some difficulty with curbs. Leashed dogs are welcome on the trails but may not be allowed in buildings.

Event conditions

This event will take place regardless of weather conditions except if noted in the sanction. Please check the website before traveling to the event using the URL on the bottom of the front page. Anything extraordinary will be noted there. There will be no refunds for pre-paid credit fees.

Stipulations for the event

This event is open to everyone. With registration for these events, the participants accept the guidelines for AVA Volkssport events and agree to observe the principles of good sportsmanship. Littering is prohibited. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Event disclaimer

The sponsors are not liable for accidents, thefts, and/or material damage. Every reasonable effort will be made by the sponsors to make this a safe, enjoyable, and memorable event. An AVA athletic waiver must be signed by those participating in any event. A parent or guardian must sign for children under 18.

Comments

Part of North Central Region Roundup scheduled for the September 15-17 weekend. Friday, we will staff a start/finish point at the Plymouth County Historical Museum from 10-3. The museum will open just for our walk, so thank the volunteers. On Saturday and Sunday, the museum is open 1-5. The museum is free but does accept good will offerings. More ice cream is made in Le Mars, Iowa than any other place on earth. Stop for a cone at the Ice Cream Capital Museum.
