Easton Park is the name given to a large residential area in the SE part of Austin. Much of the land was originally owned by the Collins family. Newton Isaac Collins Sr. (1819-1903) was born into slavery in Alabama. He moved to Texas in 1840 where he became known as a master carpenter and very savvy businessman.

The Newton Collins Elementary school is named for him and his industrious family.

At present Easton Park consists of 10 separate neighborhoods, each with its own personality and park: Bryant Park, Knob Hill, Skyline Park, Nelson Village, Kieke Park, Discovery Park, Union Village, Union Park, Pilot Park, and Prospect Park.
