Some of the sights you will enjoy on this new Northeast Vancouver route:

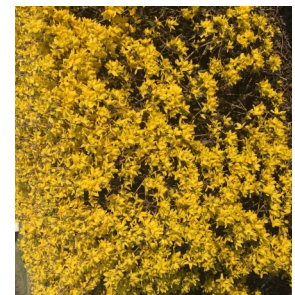

Buddhist Center at the corner of 179th Street and 18th Avenue. Instruction and meditation groups are held here on a regular basis. Interesting statuary and grounds .

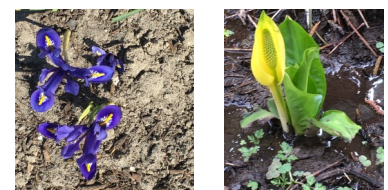

Showing off.

People and dogs enjoying the sunshine and shade in the Pacific Community Park dog run. Daffodils in community gardens.

Golden forsythia. It must be spring.

The Vancouver USA Walking Club hopes you have enjoyed this exploration of some of our northeast neighborhoods. Check AVA.org and The Pathfinder for the many other walks in the Vancouver area.
