EVENT INFORMATION

Soon to be part of The Great American Rail-Trail, the White River Trail has stunning views of tree-covered buttes and crosses the White River on former railroad bridges. It connects Crawford, NE to Fort Robinson State Park, a park filled with history from the surrender of Crazy Horse, Buffalo Soldiers and a German prisoner-of-war camp during WWII. Leashed dogs are welcome on the trail. Fort Robinson is filled with history and has some great overnight options if you are looking for a place to stay.

Event conditions

This event will take place regardless of weather conditions except if noted in the sanction. Please check the website before traveling to the event using the URL on the bottom of the front page. Anything extraordinary will be noted there. There will be no refunds for pre-paid credit fees.

Stipulations for the event

This event is open to everyone. With registration for these events, the participants accept the guidelines for AVA Volkssport events and agree to observe the principles of good sportsmanship. Littering is prohibited. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Event disclaimer

The sponsors are not liable for accidents, thefts, and/or material damage. Every reasonable effort will be made by the sponsors to make this a safe, enjoyable, and memorable event. An AVA athletic waiver must be signed by those participating in any event. A parent or guardian must sign for children under 18.

Comments

Trail is on crushed rock trail with some paved street. Trail may not be plowed in the winter.
