Why? We were in the RV driving back from the multiple events in Bend, Oregon. On the open road, and on the radio I hear, "Is Anybody Going to San Antone" by Charley Pride. It triggered so many memories. Charley Pride was Sherry's Dad's favorite country artist. We came to agree. We enjoyed Charley on the 8-track, on the record player with both 33rpm LPs and 45s. His songs were played on the local Rocky Ford radio station. They grew on you, and you could always recognize a song was his because of his distinctive voice. In 2020, Sherry and I traveled to Reno and enjoyed a live concert with Charley. He was 85 and his voice was just as mesmerizing as ever. It was a great loss to the country music community, and to us, when Charley passed on December 12, 2020. He will be in our hearts forever.
