Westminster Y0886

YRE Description

William Winchester purchased approximately 167 acres of land called White's Level in 1754 which became known as the city of Winchester. The Maryland General Assembly later changed the name of the town to Westminster to avoid confusion with Winchester, the seat of nearby Frederick County, Virginia.

Currently, Westminster is the county seat of Carroll County and the home to McDaniel College (once known as Western College).

There are two trails;

- A 10k trail on paved trails or concrete sidewalks.
- A 5k trail on paved trails or concrete sidewalks.
