Starting Point Location: Outside entrance to Loudoun County Visitor Center at Market Station (lower deck), 1126 South St. SE, Leesburg VA 20715, 703-771-2170/800-752-6118. GPS: LAT: 39 06 39 N, LONG: 77 33 36 W.

Driving Directions:

From I-66 in VA: Exit 40 toward VA Rt. 15 North. Travel about 21 miles through pleasant Virginia horse country to Leesburg. Rt. 15 becomes S. King St. in Leesburg. Continue straight on S. King St./Business 15 into town. Turn right on Loudoun St. to Market Station across from the parking garage at the corner of Church St. NE and Loudoun St. NE

Parking: Park in either lot on right at either end of Market Station, in the public Church St. lot at the corner of Church St. NE and Loudoun St. NE, or in the parking garage at corner of Church St. NE and Loudoun St. SE (parking garage available to public only on weekends.)

Food and Drink: You can't go wrong here. There are numerous restaurants at the start location and along the trail, including a number of pubs. If the Visitor Center is open, ask for recommendations, but we have enjoyed Fireworks Pizza and South Street Under in Market Station and Dog Money Restaurant and Brewery at 50 Catoclin Circle NE.

5K Directions

1. With your back to the Visitor's Center at Tuscarora Mill/Market Station, (Mayflower, Tuscarora People), turn → RIGHT (Restrooms through red door numbered 110. Note Dairy Barn historical sign.)
(Mayflower: Tuscarora people)
Market Station: collection of historical structures, some original to the site, including a former mill (now the Tuscarora Mill restaurant, rated by residents as the county's most popular) and a railroad station.
3. At W&OD Trail crossing (before Raflo Park sign), turn → RIGHT onto trail
The trail follows the former railbed of the Washington and Old Dominion Railroad which runs 45 miles from Alexandria to Purcellville. Before and during the Civil War it was known as the Alexandria, Leesburg, and Harrison Railroad. "The skinniest park in Virginia," it was designated a National Recreation Trail in 1987.
4. Continue straight, crossing two streets. At Dry Mill Road, turn → RIGHT.
5. At West Loudoun Street, turn → RIGHT for 3 blocks into town. At Wirt Street, turn ← LEFT for 2 blocks.
#21 Wirt St NW was the home of Colonel Elijah White, commander of the Laurel Brigade, 42nd Virginia Cavalry, during the Civil War (Mayflower: White)
6. At Cornwall Street, cross and turn ← LEFT.
Old Stone Church site and cemetery: First Methodist church-owned property in America (May 11, 1766). Historical markers inside fence.
7. At Liberty Street, cross street and turn → RIGHT on sidewalk for 1 block.
Mount Zion Cemetery initially was associated with the Old Stone Church (during segregation, blacks and whites could not be buried in the same cemetery). It contains graves of 4 African Americans who fought for the Union in the Civil War
8. At corner (North Street and Old Waterford Road), cross and turn → RIGHT on sidewalk for 1 block. At Wirt Street, cross and turn ← LEFT for 1 long block
At the end of the street the white obelisk ahead of you to the right of the big tree marks Elijah White's grave in Union Cemetery
9. At Union Street, turn → RIGHT (LFL #79513 at Child Find Center, a public building, 10 Union St., Clock ON the LFL)
10. At North King Street, turn → RIGHT for 2 blocks
#205, Glenfiddich House (nee Harrison Hall) is where Gen Robert E Lee met with his generals a few days before Antietam in September, 1862 (historical marker)
11. At Cornwall Street, cross Cornwall Street, then turn ← LEFT crossing King Street, and then turn → RIGHT on left side of North King Street
12. Go through arch and take path in front of old courthouse (Clock)
The old courthouse is the third on this site. Note the Spirit of Loudoun statue dedicated on Veterans Day in 2015. It commemorates the patriots of Loudoun County who fought in the American Revolutionary War and the families that supported them. Across on your right is Lightfoot Restaurant in the former People's National Bank established by Elijah White
13. At far side of courthouse, follow path left past three memorials to Loudoun's fallen on your right and one on the left just before the steps (Walking with America's Veterans – 4 separate qualifiers). Go up the stairs and right; exit through swinging gate.
In front of you is the downtown post office.
#20 West Market Street: Laurel Brigade Inn [alternately an ordinary (1760s-mid 1800s), inn/restaurant (1946-2002), now law offices (2005-)].
#19 West Market Street: To the right of the theater are flag poles in front of the Leesburg town hall
15. At Wirt Street look left toward Leesburg United Methodist Church for LFL # 82986 at 5 Wirt SW. Continue on Market Street.
At #107 historical marker for Old Stone Church
16. At Liberty Street, turn ← LEFT for 1 block. At Loudoun Street SW, turn ← LEFT
#109 Loudoun St. SW: Federal style home of the early 1800s for Thomas Birkby, carriage maker

and Methodist minister; probably the site of 1730s house of John Awbry, first resident of what is now Leesburg.

#108 Loudoun St. SW: Norris House, a former Protestant Episcopal Church rectory, was "Victorianized" in 1885 by Joseph Norris. Now a B&B.

#106 Loudoun St. SW: Legend says George Washington used it as a headquarters during the French and Indian War. Henry Clay, campaigning for president in 1832, stayed here. This is Baker House featured on an award patch

#16 Loudoun St. SW: Mid-19th Century building houses the Loudoun Museum; local exhibits (fee).

#14 Loudoun St. SW: This circa 1760 log cabin is Loudoun County's oldest surviving structure.

#4 Loudoun St. SW: The barber shop dates to 1888 and was integrated in 1962.

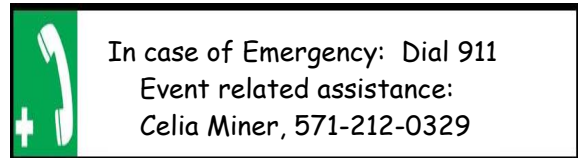

17. Pass South King Street, continue on Loudoun St. SE

#4 Loudoun St. SE: The 1761-62 Patterson House features Georgian style and Colonial Revival porch. Captain Henry McCabe's Ordinary in the late 1770s, George Washington reportedly dined here. In 1825 the Marquis de Lafayette was toasted on the steps.

#7 Loudoun St. SE: 1790 Fendall House, a Greek Revival style building, is one of Leesburg's finest old homes. During the Civil War a Union soldier exiting Patterson House across the street fired at a Confederate soldier exiting this house one Sunday morning.

#18 Loudoun St. SE: Lynch-Tebbs house, 1760-61 Federal style home.

18. At Market Station, turn ➔ RIGHT and return to Visitor Center

These walk directions and maps may only be used in conjunction with a signed American Volkssport Association athletic waiver. All other uses are prohibited.

Thank you for walking in Leesburg with us. Stamp your IVV books (if registered for IVV credit), take an envelope to return your completed start card and appropriate registration fee. Then get something to eat and drink. Have a safe trip home.

10K Directions

1. With your back to the Visitor's Center at Tuscarora Mill/Market Station, (Mayflower, Tuscarora People), turn
➔ RIGHT

Market Station: collection of historical structures, some original to the site, including a former mill (now the Tuscarora Mill restaurant, rated by residents as the county's most popular) and a railroad station.

3. At W&OD Trail crossing (before Raflo Park sign), turn
➔ RIGHT onto trail

The trail follows the former railbed of the Washington and Old Dominion Railroad which runs 45 miles from Alexandria to Purcellville. Before and during the Civil War it was known as the Alexandria, Leesburg, and Harrison Railroad. "The skinniest park in Virginia," it was designated a National Recreation Trail in 1987.

4. Continue straight, crossing four streets (SW Catoctin Circle is last one). Across intersection (water on left) and between stretching post and historical marker, turn

5. At T intersection, turn ← LEFT and go almost halfway around Foxridge Park. At Y intersection, turn ← LEFT and take path into development

6. Cross road and continue on path. At fork at clearing, go straight ahead keeping Foxridge Park's ball field and playground on your right.

7. At parking lot, go straight ahead to other side. At far end, take path to corner.

8. At Children's Center Road, cross and go straight, walking on left side of SW Catoctin Circle. At traffic light, (West Market St.) continue straight on paved path on left side of Fairview St.

Paved path is lined with native Virginia trees planted in 2015 by the Leesburg Garden Club to commemorate its 100th anniversary
